National Conference 2018

March 2-4, 2018

Hyatt Regency North Houston
Houston, TX

National Conference

March 2-4, 2018

The conference includes messages from our speakers, powerful praise & worship, a reflective prayer room, and 4 meals (3 on Saturday, breakfast on Sunday).

Jen Cowart is co-founder of Harvest Church in Middle Georgia, where she serves as Executive Pastor. Harvest concentrates on helping people far from God draw closer to Him making the church one of the fastest growing in our country in the past decade! Jen and her husband Jim have authored several books including "Living the Five," "Start This Stop That," "Hand Me Downs," and "G3."

Pastor Adria Maria Nuñez Ortiz, of La Habana, Cuba, is a musician, singer and choral director. She is also director of the Liturgy area in the district of Habana and a professor at the Methodist Evangelical Seminary in Central Habana Extension. Pastor Ortiz shares the loves of Jesus and ministers women on inner healing.

Rev. Rebekah Clapp is a provisional deacon in the UMC, serving in West Ohio as Strategy Coordinator for Hispanic/Latino Ministries. As someone with a passion for global mission partnerships, Rebekah's connection to the Methodists in Cuba has been transformative. She serves in the ministry of translation alongside of her colleague and dear friend Pastor Adria Nuñez.
